FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GRANDVIEW MAN INDICTED FOR ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Grandview, Mo., man was indicted by a federal grand jury today for attempting to rob a Bank of America branch in Kansas City.

Roger Dale Inman, 49, of Grandview, was charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Kansas City.

The federal indictment alleges that Inman attempted to take by force and threat of intimidation money belonging Bank of America, located at 10731 State Line Road, on Nov. 17, 2004, in Kansas City.

Inman was originally charged in a criminal complaint filed in federal court on Nov. 18, 2004, in Kansas City. Today's indictment replaces that criminal complaint.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney K. Michael Warner. It was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Graves cautioned that the charge contained in this indictment is simply an accusation and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charge must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.
